

SRLF DA 45. 43. 180.

ATLAS

TO

THE MEMOIRS

 \mathbf{OF}

JOHN DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH;

CONTAINING

ARMORIAL BEARINGS, FACSIMILES, MAPS,

 \mathbf{AND}

MILITARY PLANS.

LONDON:

PRINTED FOR LONGMAN, HURST, REES, ORME, AND BROWN, PATERNOSTER-ROW.

1820.

-
			Ē.
		•
				•
					0.5
	•
				Ý
		,
		11.0		(140)

ATLAS.

Order of Arrangement for the Plates and References.

THE larger plates, with the military maps and plans, being on too great a scale to fold in this octave edition, are arranged in this Atlas, in the following order:

4. Arms of His Grace George Spencer Churchill, Duke of Marlborough, referring to the dedication, vol. i.

2. Quarterings, crest and supporters of John, first Duke of Marlborough, referred to in the Genealogical Account of the Churchill Family, vol. i.

- 3. Fac Simile of the draught of a letter, from John Duke of Marlborough to Lord Godolphin, without date, but written from the Hague, in 1705, beginning, "I came hither this day!
 - 1. Fac Similes of the hand-writing of King William and Queen Anne.

5. Outline map of the theatre of war, in 1702, 1703, and 1705.

6. Map of the operations in Germany in 1704, before and after the battle of Blenheim, referring to chapters 22-27, vol. i. and ii.

Plan of the attack on the Schellenberg, chap. 23, vol. i.
 References to the plan of the battle of Blenheim, chap 26, vol. i.

Plan of the battle of Blenheim, chap. 26, vol. i. 9.

- Map exhibiting the operations on the Moselle in 1705, chap. 34, vol. ii. 10.
- Plan of the attack on the French lines in Brabant, in 1705, chap. 36, vol. ii. 11.

Map of the Principality of Mindelheim, chap. 43, vol. ii. 12.

Arms borne by the Duke of Marlborough, as Prince of Mindelheim, ibid. 13.

Plan of the battle of Ramilies, 1706, chap. 45, vol. ii. 14.

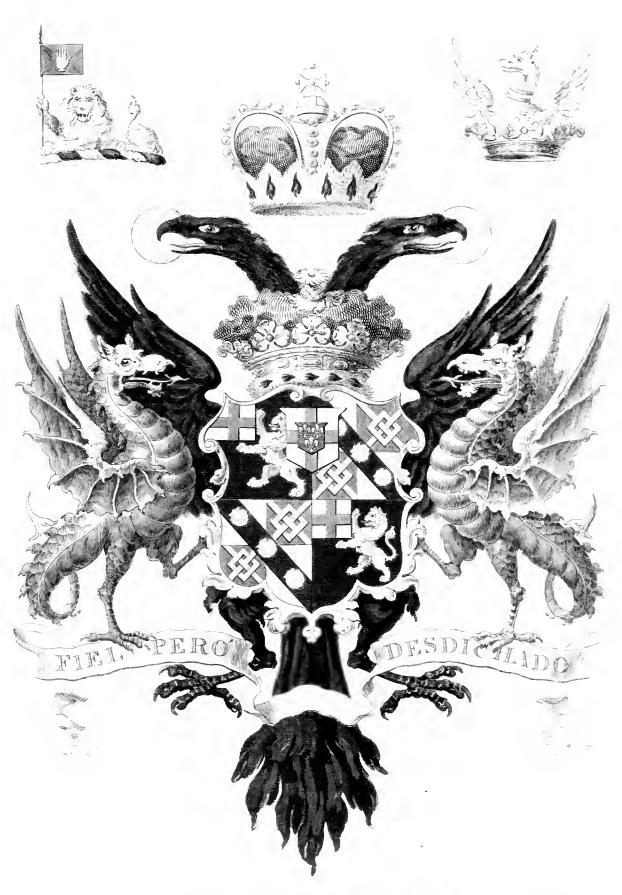

- Map for the siege of Ostend in 1706, and the affair of Wynendale in 1708, chap. 46, vol. ii. and 73. vol. iv.
- 16. Outline of a Map for the campaign of 1707, and part of 1708, chap. 56.—72, vol iii. and iv.
- 17. Plan of the battle of Oudenard, in 1708, chap. 69, vol iv.

18. Map for the siege of Lille, in 1708, chap. 70, vol. iv.

Map of the operations of the Confederate armies, from the 4th to the 11th of September, 1769, chap. 81, vol. v.

20. References to the plan of the battle of Malplaquet, chap. 82, vol. v. 21. Plan of the battle of Malplaquet, chap. 82, vol. v.

22. Operations of the campaign of 1711, chap. 102, 103, and 104, vol. vi.

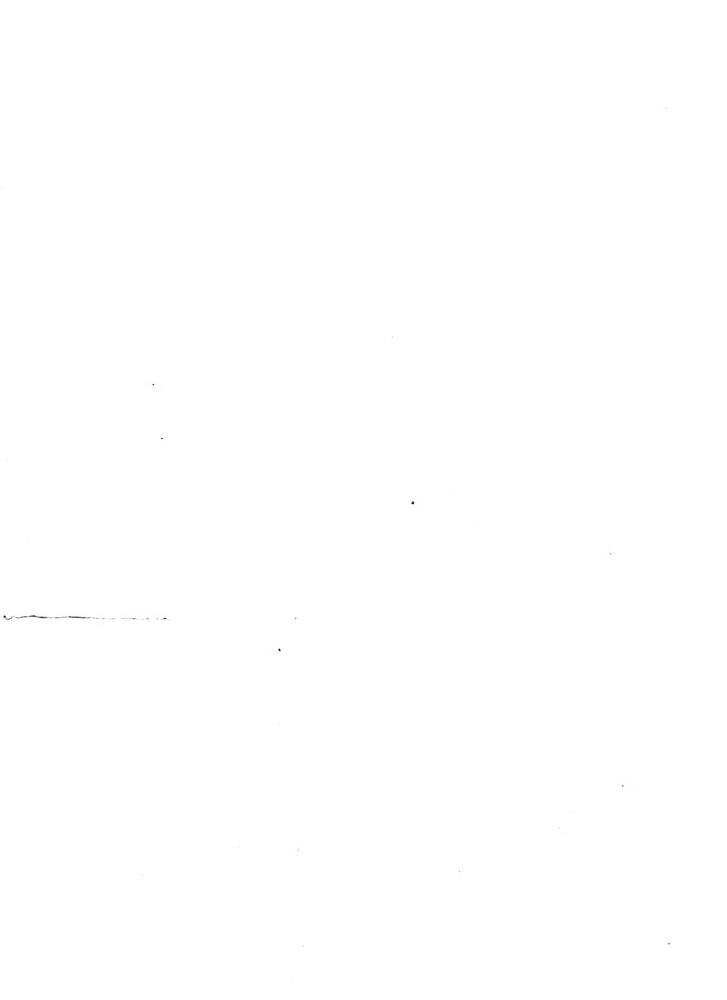

Colone of the Grand Const. Spring to the second of the second of Quartering's Crest and Supporters of IOMN' first DUKE of MARABOROUGH.

		* 2

I came heither this day from Low, and found yours of the 29 he gray spenuchts ray that found yours with you, and Ithink it is the kings intentions I should, come, however to make it secure, then you when this letter, which I desire you and on the goe as that I might have noe difficulty in show, It to the king, that you wint don't for the king serving as well as your own satisfaction, that he Till bring mee with from, I say all this because I know yo has a mend to have mee your some time after the king, but of this you must take noe notice, for the king says nothing to mee of at the reason thy I wish to have you write your waywer to this letter such as I might shoe the king, is sheet, if you doe approve of my thought which I shall now tell you, it that I would make vse of it to strengthen mee for other war wee are more likely to be in confusion then any thing Use, for there is no aplication made here but for a new pert: and Jevenfelse for the Rong, and Kingdom rake Inish this may meet and make good what the King has done pursuant to their godresses, for the good of the Comon Cause, and to the end they might Ine soe, my opinion i. that they might the 30 1?!

for the Negociations with be at an end, I mean the time prefixt in the Treaty with the Emporor and this state in which fort night I won't have them declare them selves soe Clearly, as that about the french might be dighat ned which would make the thole Empire I acture in favour of the Comon Cause in order to this I soud have the bing year very plainly to them, and acquaint them with every thing he had done rince their last weeting, I mean the Treaty noth Denmark, the Emperor, and Iweeden if nee can possibly get one is also one with this State, which as yet fan not master enough of the Pertulars to request you ath, but you may be sure the king and observe the same method m that, is in this of the finger or by doing nothing, without commicating it to the Lords furtices, we and for any other breaty, Jan confedent there will be nothing right till wee have been some fine in England, one thing more for hour lett you know that as to the denombrement which I take to be the most Substantiall part of the breaty The numbers the Emperor, I shall take care to have The numbers the Emperor, and the Intoh, shall be obliged to provide, but as to what England are to furnish, that favir have the Part: Ic clar exhich de before the of Nov: for then the Convention Denombrement is signed, when they have approved of the breatys, and settled the Kenombremens I am not you enrugonable, as to think of washing Machamore White, for know mallier ail prevails and the Partys will be angry, but feart but hop that our freinds. will be soe rise as to let the av zoe, that hill 4 tand by the King and doe their to opose the Exorbitant power of france, by they will grown energe their party, and ? have more power with his Mely. now that There to to you that from nich I must bellyon, what Ithink is very evident, that if they whind not doe what Thank mentioned, by the 15 Nov: which is the time we are found with the Emperor, and we that the king should be Myse to call a new Part: Ithink all England no no Ram them, or we should be volume; for in my poor opinion of the Part: Ivre not come Rarlely into this burnes, the Emperor, and the dutch will be Myd to make their conditions with france, the Consign once of which Jneed not mention it Jam in the arong of this matter you will let mee know it, or how fare fam in the right, but what ever you think of it pray let notory know as from mee any thing of this, volles it be 16. as ghave bold you at the beginning of my letter

The last month, It was long the Done, and for the alterations on that period were the find about the alterations to after what you had gayle to me concerning omitions of Excision blustomes in your letter Aff. It hat period the work flid not much prefer him on that perioder, as to the food be Done, and for the alterations in the two Comprisons he should present to you of that I have he came to England, on the thirt of the two lines in my minion in the thirt of the present to the thirt of the thirt of the done, and to the thirt of the thirt of the the came to England, on the thirt of the thirt of the the prince in my minion if things your to kind mind all will be done,

Letter from King William to the Earl of Marlborough

Hove of douff 1700. Le he croi pajquilest before que se du ferre de beauwup de harvles pour vous vous dire avez quelle Juntite Et doudur jay afing la Monton Ducce Glore fer for whe high whole heart hour foute l'Angleter que jet ay le cour perfe café Le vous affeute qu'en celle orcasion et entout aust je ferefrefalte de bong kou het def Marjuefde Mon

Note from Queen Anne to the Dutchefs of Marlborough

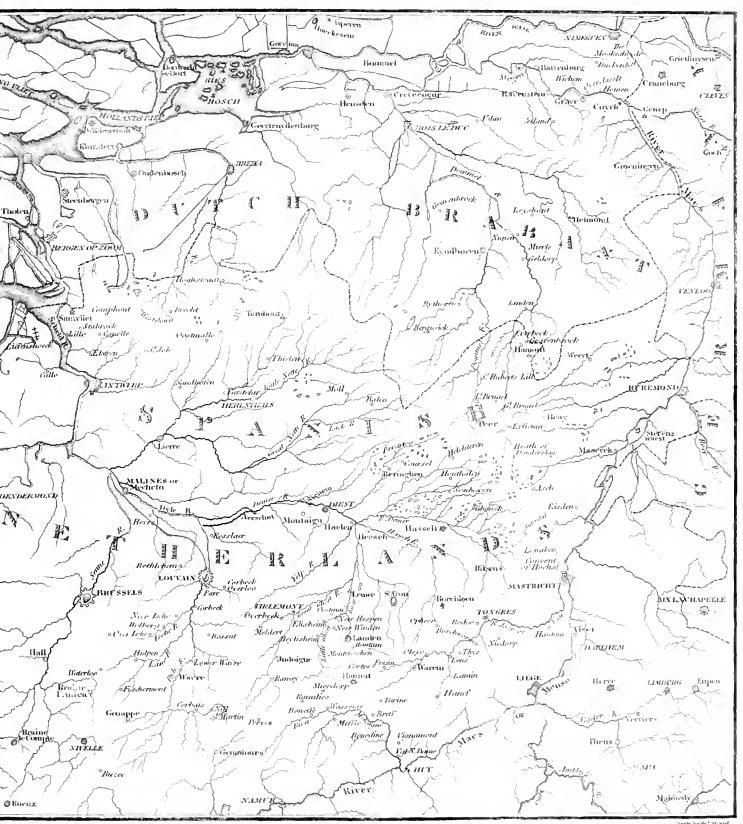

Lyday morning

I am extream glad of Duke of Mart: is gen to my deare m's freences & I with this to desire you would keep him with yer till you are easy about dear L' Blanford, Christ Jesus grant he may do well & preserve you & yours from all Lad accidents

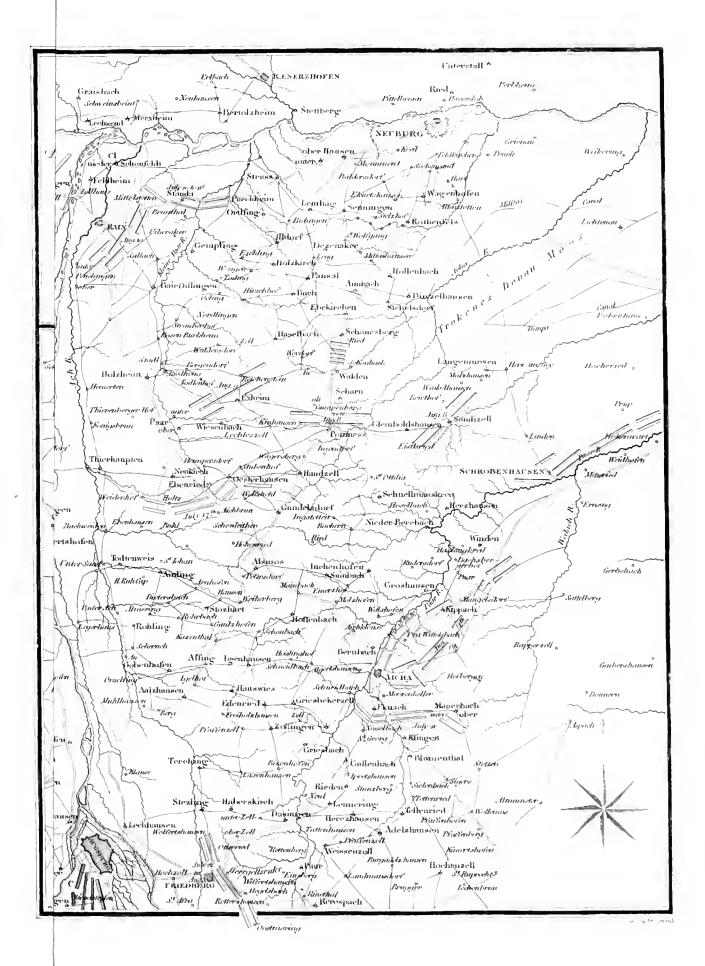

For the Gutchesse of marlborough

		Ų.

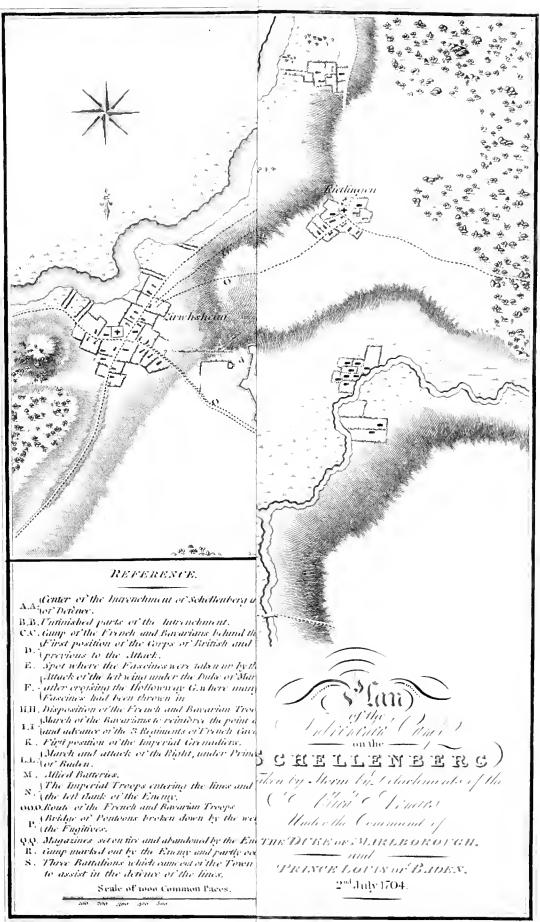

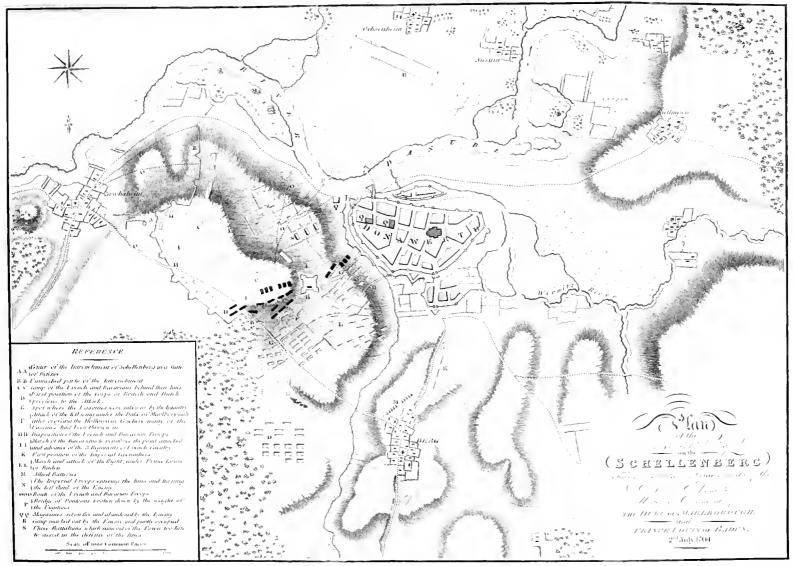

e (ge)
	1

Link with the Mark II to to home the at Kees A was Pater to A

ATLAS.

No. 8.

References to the Plan of the Battle of Blenheim.

Position of the Allied Army on the 12th of August.

March in 9 columns towards the enemy. В.

Corps of the Duke of Marlborough deployed in 4 lines. C.

D. Corps of Lord Cutts.

E. Corps of Eugene before his reserve had entered the line.

F. Allied Batteries.

G. First movement of Marlborough towards the Nebel.

Η. March of the Brigades under Lord Cutts, and passage of the rivulet at the water-mills. Spot where the first attacks were made, and where the different charges took place between the French Gens d'Armes and the 5 Squadrons of British.

К. French and Bavarian Camp.

Order of Battle of the French, at the beginning of the Engagement.

- M. Part of the Centre of Infantry under General Churchill, who first passed the Nebel. and took post behind a Hedge.
- The Cavalry, while advancing to occupy the ground, charged by the first line of the enemy, and partly repulsed behind the Infantry.

Troops in columns endeavouring to pass at the same moment.

- P. Bothmar's Brigade of Dragoons, which charged the right flank of the Enemy's Horse, and in conjunction with the fire of the Infantry, first checked and then drove back the hostile Cavalry behind the Meulweyer.
- Q. March in close order of the Allies, and halt, with the left between the Nebel and Meulweyer, the Brigade of Ross thrown back, while the Infantry entered into the first line; the Centre and Right of the French rallied, General Churchill's Infantry forming, and the 3 Battalions of Hanoverians engaged with the Brigade of Robec.

Attack of the French Infantry upon the Division of Prince Holstein Beck.

- Movement of the Brigade of Bernsdorff, and Charges of Marsin's right against the Danes and Hanoverians.
- Direction of the Allied Line, after the great charges, which broke the Centre of the French.
- The Cavalry of Marshal Tallard and part of Marsin's, endeavouring to rally in line behind the Tents.

The remainder of Marsin's right falling back behind Oberglaugh.

- W. Last charge of the Allied left Corps, driving the Enemy partly into the Danube, and partly towards Deissenhofen.
- Χ. French Gens d'Armes, &c. rescued by the movements of the Brigade of Grignan, which obliged the Dragoons of Bothmar to retire.

First attack of Prince Eugene. a a.

The Bavarian Horse repulsing the Charge, and a part taking the Infantry in Flank. b.b.

Second attack of Eugene's cavalry. c.c.

The Imperial Cavalry driven back to the Nebel the third time. $\mathbf{d}.\mathbf{d}.$

March and attacks of the Prussian and Danish Infantry. e.e.

Retreat of the Elector and Marsin, after setting fire to Lutzingen and Oberglaugh. f. f.

Charge of the Imperial Cavalry upon the last Battalion of Bavarians.

h.h. March of General Churchill to invest Blenheim.

i. i. Dispositions to surround the village.

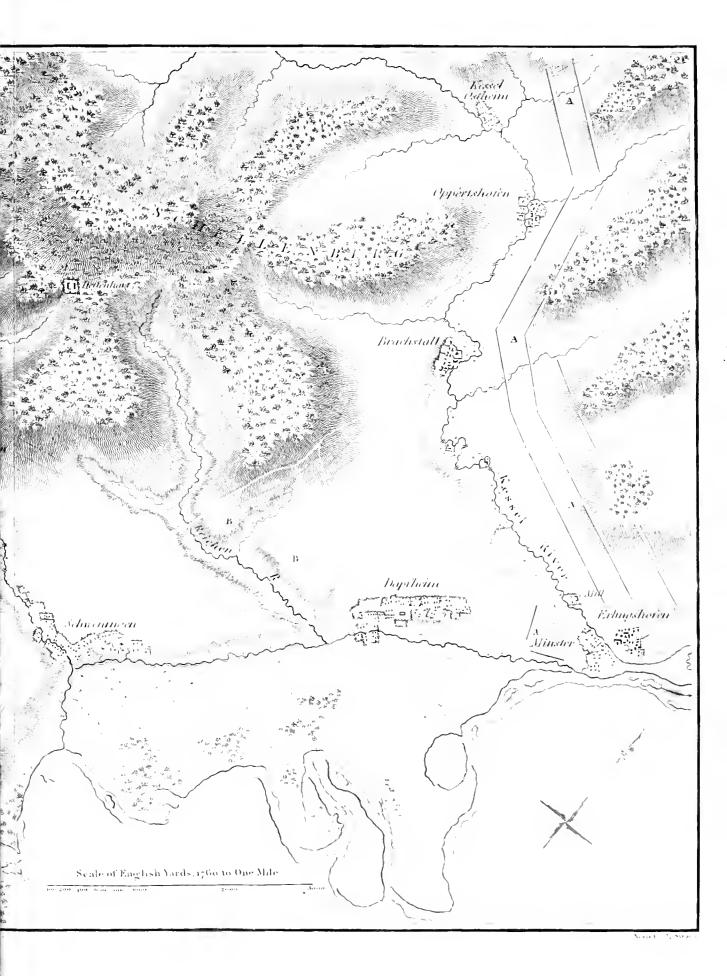

k.k. Attacks of Lord Orkney and General Ingolsby repulsed.

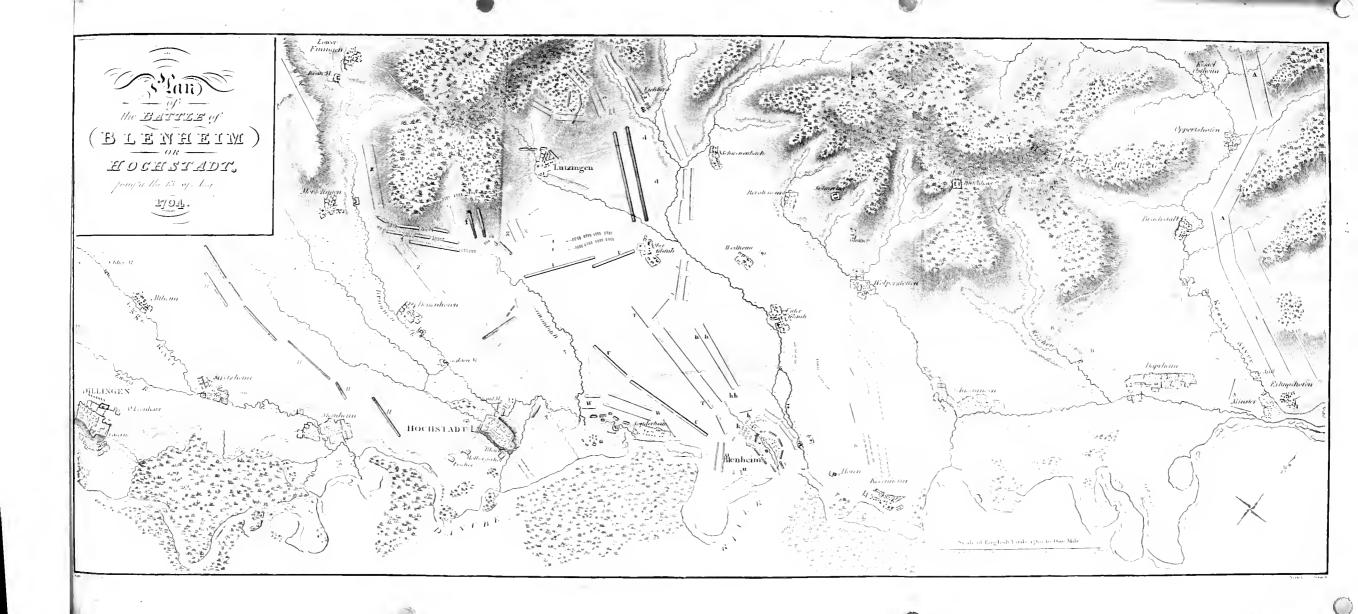

1. 1. Last position of the Elector and Marsin.

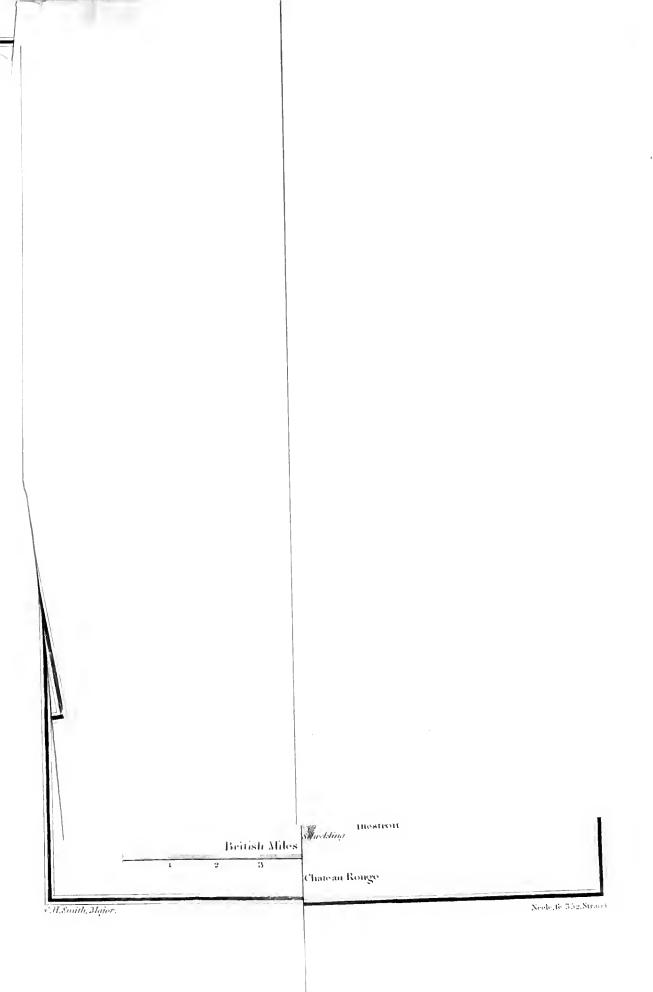

Last charge of General Hompesch.

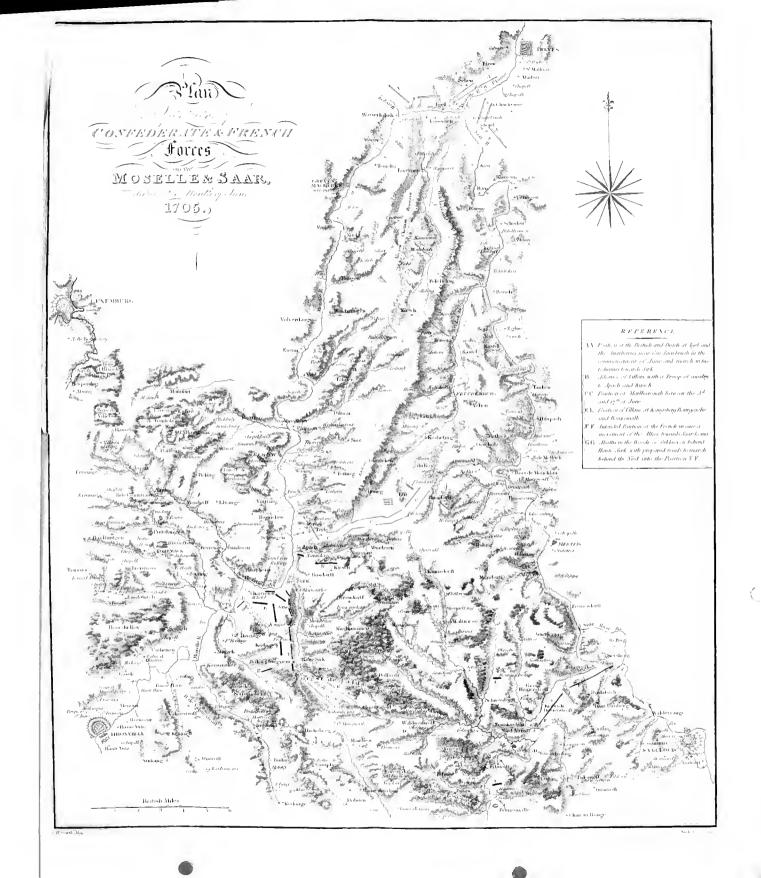

Y. Last charge of General Hompeson.
Z. Position of the Allies the evening of the Battle.

			1
	· .
•
	4.7

London InMohal March 1918 I by Longman Hand Rees time Chrown, Pater, Forder Bow

	77 k* .

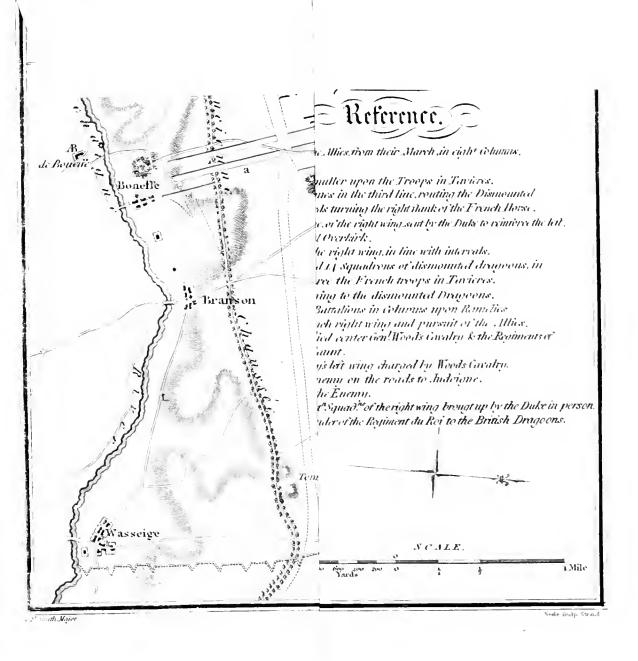

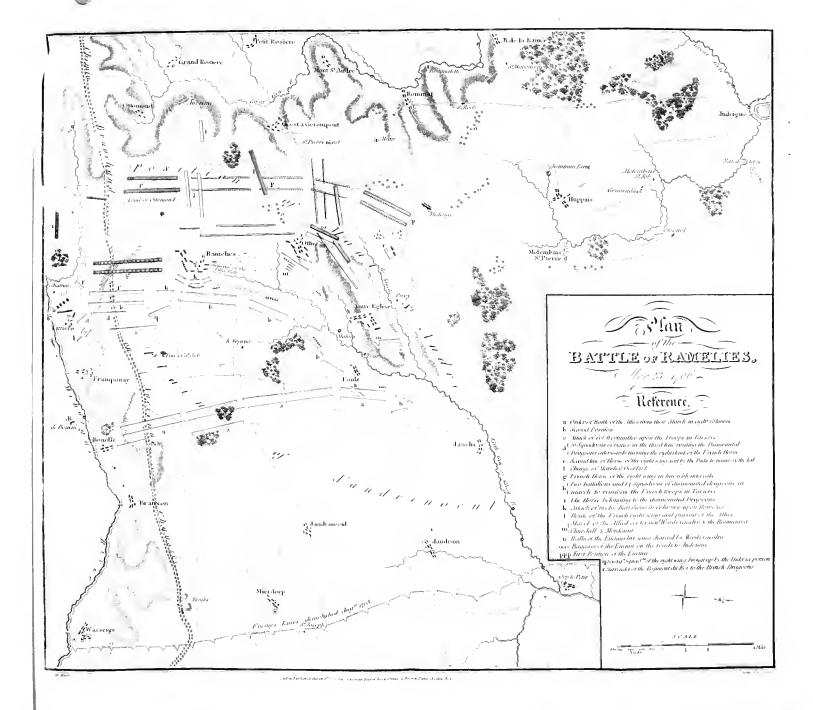

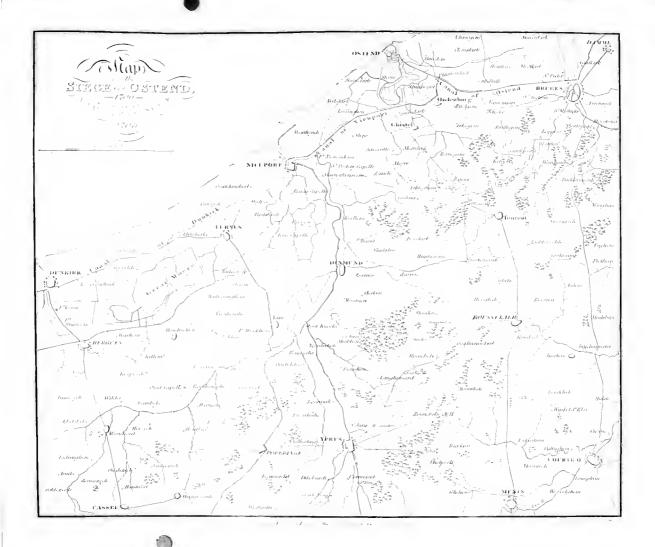

Arms of the DUKT: or Marlborough as Registered at Mindelheim

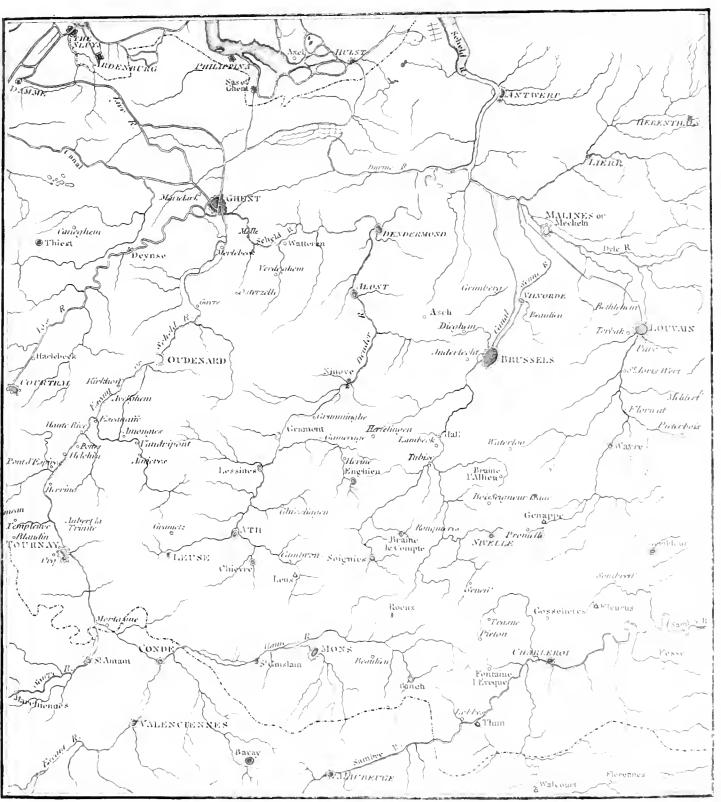

š. 11

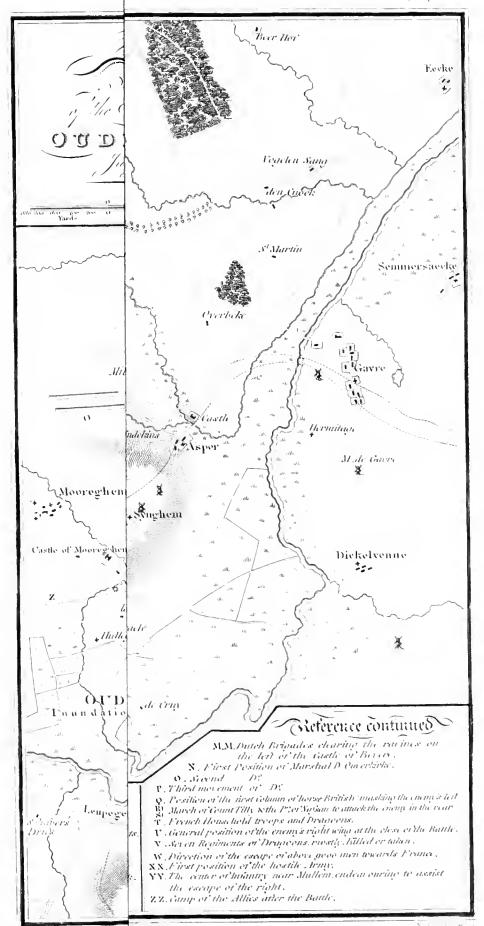

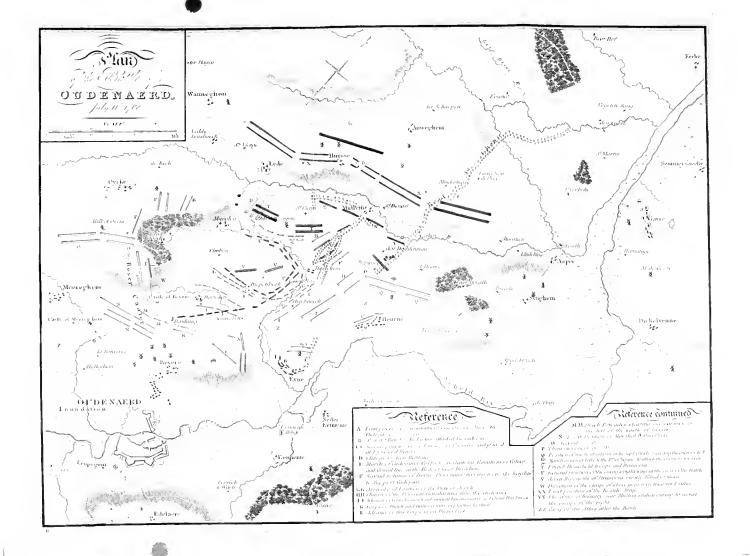

Outline. Map of the CAMPAIGNS of 1707, and part of 1708.

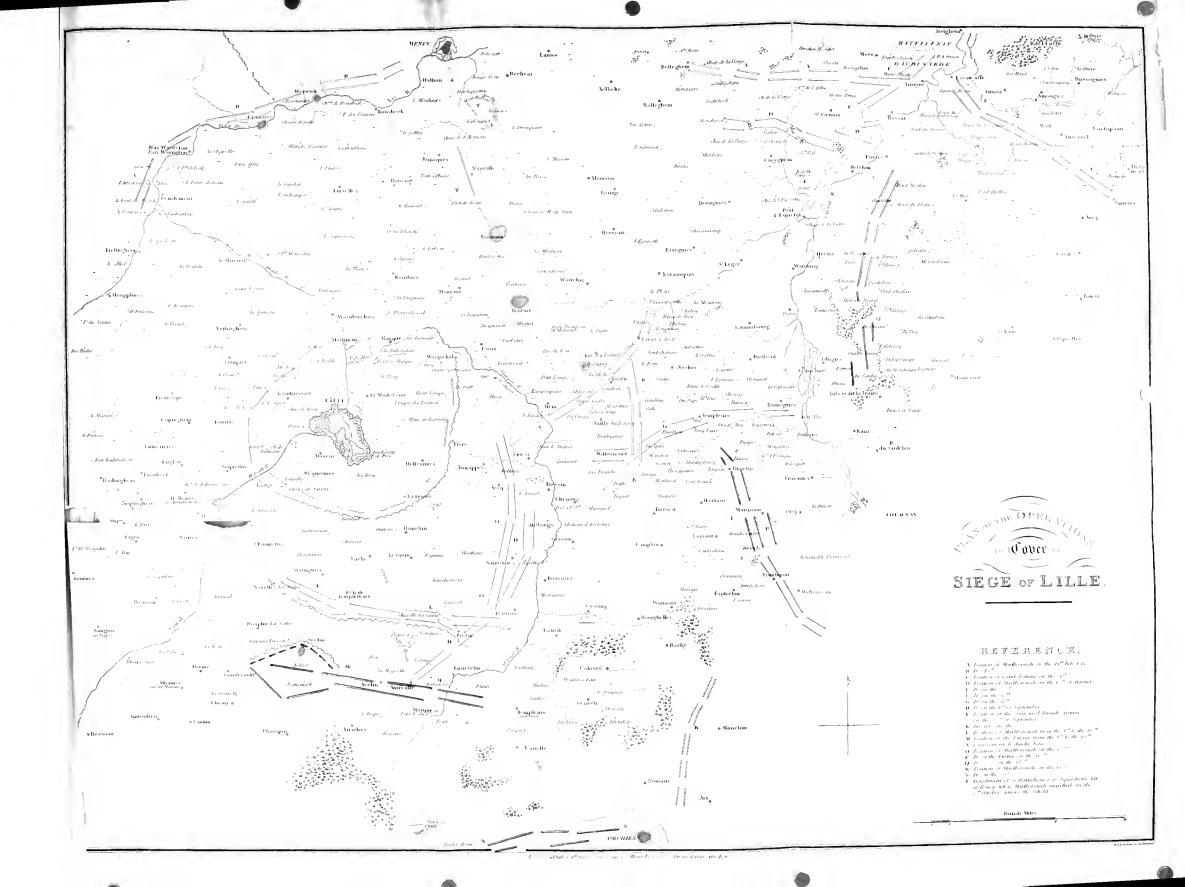

Parlianed lane 1.1828 . I want the et is Frank Brown Peter Next Red

			·
		7 a

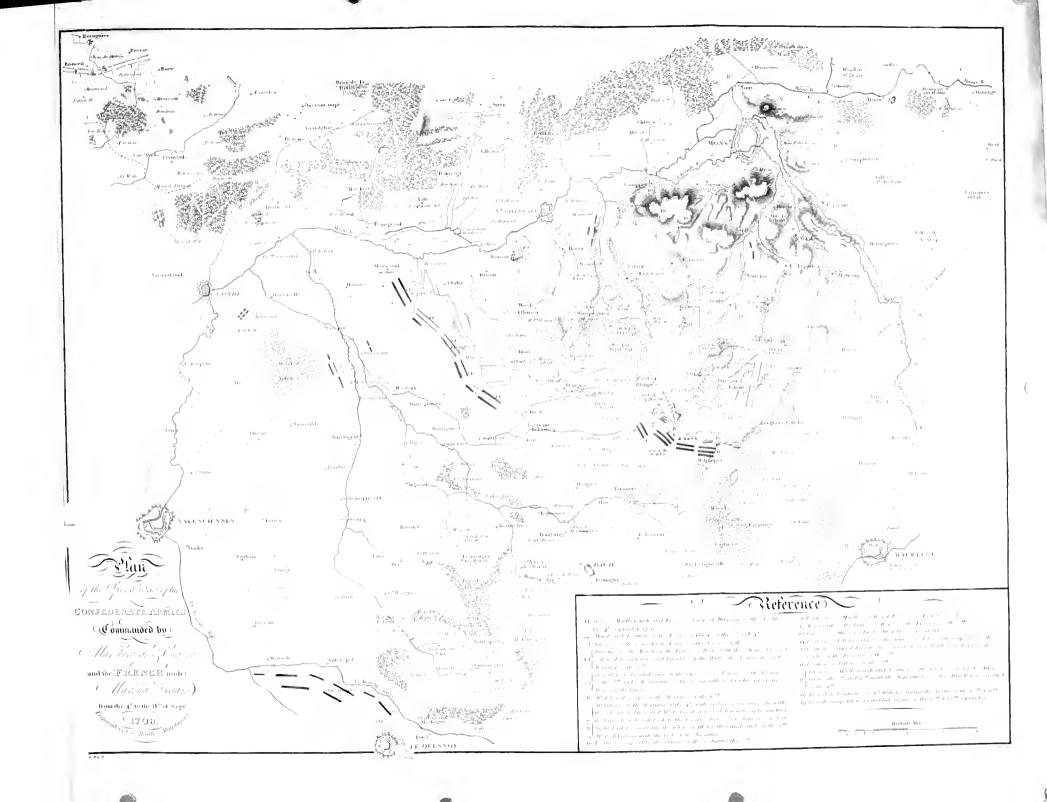

ATLAS.

No. 21.

References to the Plan of the Battle of Malplaquet.

- AA The bivouae of the confederate army, posted in order of battle two days and nights before the action.
- BB The enemy's infantry behind their intrenchments.
- CC Their eavalry in several lines.
 - D Attack of 40 battalions of Eugene's army under the immediate command of Baron Schulemburg, upon the left flank of the wood of Taisniere, penetrating to r.
 - E Forty pieces of British artillery and four mortars, directed against the wood, and afterwards moved to ruin the redans at b, and facilitate the advance of the infantry and eavalry.
 - F Dutch batteries.
 - G Nineteen hundred men, from the blockade of Mons, commanded by Brigadier Gauvain, to turn the morass.
 - H Twenty-two battalions, led on by Count Lottum, attacking the other flank of the angle, in the wood of Taisniere.
 - I First movement of the British and Prussian horse from their bivouac.
 - K Fifteen battalions under the Earl of Orkney, advancing gradually as the attacks on the right gained ground, and ultimately forcing the redans in their front.
 - L Thirty squadrons of Prince D'Auvergne, who first entered the intrenchment, and withstood the first charges of the French eavalry at d; they had originally formed behind the woods of Tiry, at c c.
 - M Second movement of British and Prussian horse, hastening to sustain D'Auvergne.
 - N First movement of the Imperial eavalry, at the time the infantry began the attack.
 Nineteen battalions and ten squadrons, who arrived from Tournay, commanded by General Withers, and having passed round and through the woods, attacked the
 - enemy's extreme left in the hedges of La Folie, with fifteen battalions.

 P The other four battalions and ten squadrons, posted in reserve.
 - Q Second advance of the Imperial cavalry to pass the redans.
 - R General Hamilton's attack with four battalions, including the Dutch Highland brigade.
 - S Spaar and Oxenstiern's attack with the Dutch guards, &c. forming 9 battalions, against the point T: this corps was led by the Prince of Orange in person.
 - U General Dohna with six battalions attacking the battery T.
 - W General Welderen with four battalions directed against the point X.
 - Y General Pallant's division of seven battalions, superintended by General Fagel, attacking Z
 - a Twenty-one squadrons under the Prince of Hesse, sustaining the Dutch: the remainder of his horse remaining in reserve at q.
 - e Lord Orkney in possession of the redans, extending his right to Lottum's left at f.
 - q Last advance, and cross fires of the British artillery.
 - h Attack of Rantzau, followed by the cavalry of Prince Hesse at k
 - m French batteries.
 - n Bivouae after the battle.

. 3 Stair dragoons

2 Lumley horse

2 Ross ditto

2 Cadogan

I Palms

2 Wood

2 Schomberg

I bat. Preston

Schwerin

Pendergras

Bothmar dragoons

2 batts. English guards

Recke

3 Est ditto

2 Fiskepel 2 Schulemburg 1 Leib Hanover 3 Haen, dragoons 1 Bulan ditto

1 Royals

Meredith

2 Vogt 2 St. Laurent 2 Pens 2 Rhede

ARMY OF THE DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH

I N I I FIRST

```
Generals.—The Prince of Hesse Cassel, the Prince of Orange, Balow.

Lieut. Generals.—Dopd, Oyen, Vittinghoff, Prince William of Hesse, Erbach, Hompesch, Heyden, Murray, Welderen, Spaar, Pallant, Rantzau, Webb, Argyle, Withers, Marshal Count Tilly, commander-in-chief of the Dutch forces.
```

Orkney, Schulemburg, Wood, Cadogan, Ross, Lumley.

Major Generals.—Banditz, Posnem, Rechteren, Schmettan, C. Maurice, Du Portal, Grovestein, Wassenaur, Keppel, Vegelin, Ammana, Hamilton, North and Grey, Bothmar, St. Laurent, Lord Stair, Temple.

Centre. Cavalry of the Left.

Caralry of the Right.

Pens

Lallo

Sybourg

Kullum

North and Grev 1 Royal 1 Sabine Orrery Argyle Temple I Evans 1 Godfrey Webb 1 Primrose 1 Lallo 1 Ingolsby Goor 1 Malfyl

Gauvain Dietlenbruck 1 Belling 1 Gauvain Stahneister 1 Rantzau

Cambrie 2 Orangnien 1 Zoutland Berkhoffer 2 Stuzler . 1 Vandenbeck Lapadis

Huffel 1 1 Vegelin Mulsburg . 1 Rechteren

1 Fournier Wallon Hurler. . I Dohna 1 Berkhoffer

. 1 Tullibardine Douglas 1 Hepburn

Steinealfels 3 Gardes bleu Holl.

. 4 Vandernot dragoons Linden Bentheim , 2 Opdam 2 Dompré

I Oyen Fabrice 2 Grovenstein 2 Wurtemberg 2 La Lecq

Rechteren 2 Erbach 2 Oostfriesland 2 Gardes bleu Holl.

1 Gardes du corps Holl. Albemarle carab Masbach . 4 Schmettau dragoons

Cavalry. First line . . 78 squadrons Second line 67 ditto

145

Infantry. 41 battalions 36 ditto

4 battalions separate

81

5 GardesdragoonsHoll.

Hackeborn . 4 Leib dragoons 4 Sarsfeld ditto 3 Anspach ditto Cavalry of the Righ 5 Dorffling ditto Duportal . 1 Gens d'Armes 3 Leib regt. Pruss. 3 Pr. Philip 2 Crown P. von Pruss. 3 Wartensleben Spaar 3 Schlippenbach 3 Duportal 1 Heyde 2 Catt

, 1 batt. Gard Pruss, Gren. Bozk. 2 Guards 3 Crown P. of Pruss Du Troussel 2 Prince Albert 2 Lottum

1 Alt Dohna 1 Young Dohna Croon Tenhof

Grumbkow, 1 Prince Hered, de Hesse Anhalt Zerbst Du Troussel

Du Bruhl , 1 Du Bruhl Zecklenburg

Les Cour 1 Du Lar 1 Cozeritz Rantzan Welderen

Hompesch Yvoy 1 Heukelom Rechteren . 1 Heyden

Major Generals.—Prince Saxe Hildburghausen, Ech, Bresowitz, Steckemburg, Prince Wurtemberg, Cravlinge, Elst, Nassau Wondenburg, Ivoy, Ranch, Ivor, Donkoff, Dornitz, Dorllingen.

Centre.

Cavalry of the Left.

Lieutenant Generals. — Dompré, Homburg, La Leeq, D'Auvergne, Athlone, Oostvrien, Oxenstiern, Bohna, Colliard, Lander, Week, Vink, Natzmer.

Generals.-Lord Albemarle, Baron Fagel, Count Lottum.

EXII ANGUES

Nassau Wondenburg

I Pallant

. 2 Mev 2 Selimitz Welderen 1 Keppel Oxenstiern Cronstrom , 2 Medrael

Linden . . . 3 Bauditz dragoons Loshausen . 2 Hesse Homburg 2 Saxe Hildburgh 2 Rechteren

2 Hunnerbein 2 Sgravenmoor Glinstra. 2 Ginkel

2 Glinstra 2 Briselwitz Voorst . 2 Chandos 2 Baldwyn

Wittenherst 2 Athlone 1 Gardes du corps Orange Waleff . . 1 Dopf, dragoons

 Several of the Generals in this order of battle were absent.

. 6 sq. Colonitz Huss.

Imperial . . 6 Reyssing dragrooms

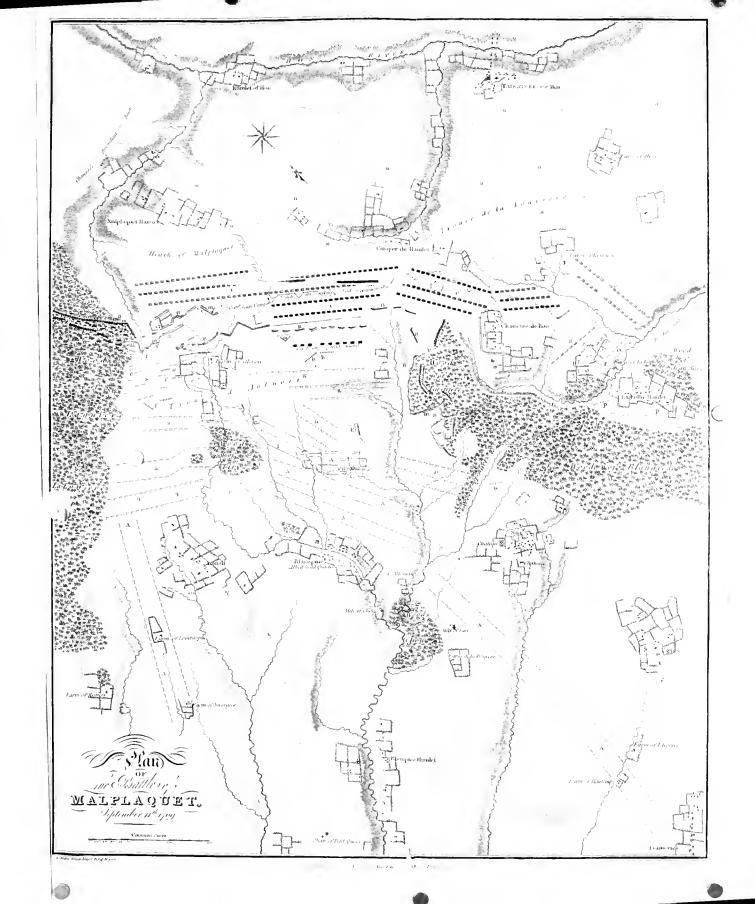

140

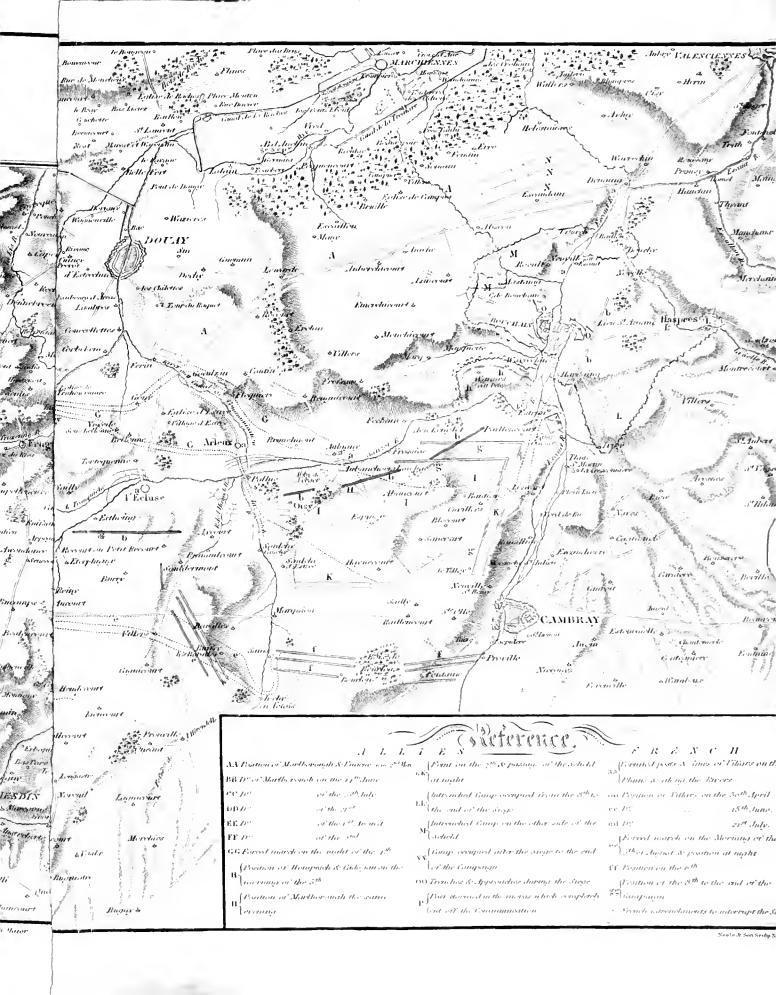

6 Falkenstein ditto

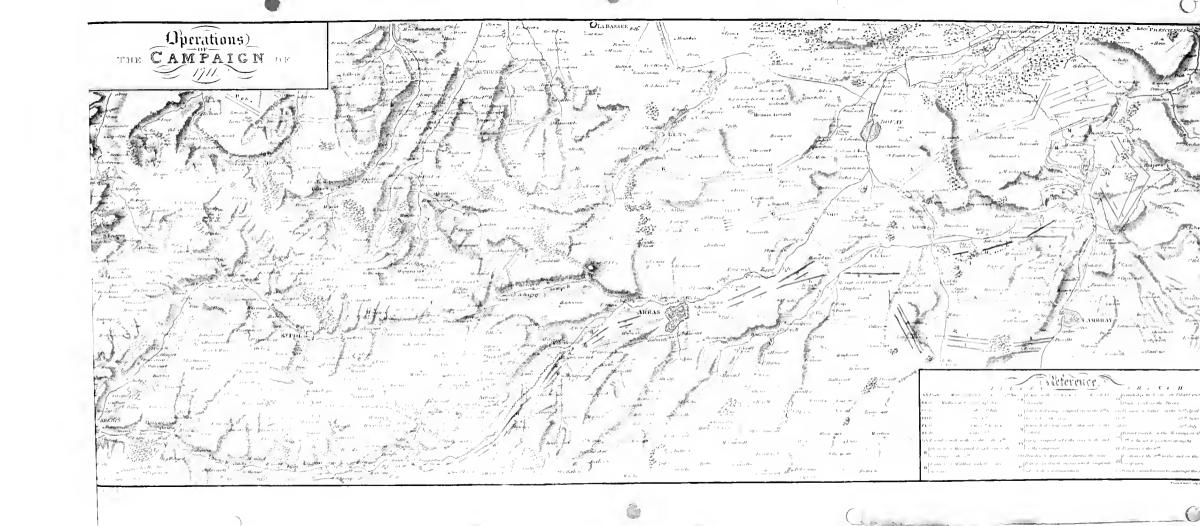

The state of the s he Me

Mr.

y
** ***********************************
$ - V - F - T
	which the state of
A STATE OF THE STA
the second section is the second section.
1.0
	A Company of the Comp
i i
	The second secon